Native American Project Source List

It is important to note the sources you use when doing research so that others know where your information came from. Use this sheet to help you create a list of the sources you used.

The Crust
for example, Title of Article: Aztec (people)
   Title of Encyclopedia: Encyclopedia Britannica

Source 1: Title of Article: _______________________________________________________
   Title of Encyclopedia: ______________________________________________________

The Sauce
for example, Title of Article: Aztec
   Title of Encyclopedia: UXL Encyclopedia of Native American Tribes

Source 3: Title of article: _______________________________________________________
   Title of encyclopedia: UXL Encyclopedia of Native American Tribes

The Cheese
for example, Title of Book: Fashion, Costume, and Culture: Clothing, Headwear, Body Decorations, and Footwear Through the Ages
   Author of Book: Sara Pendergast and Tom Pendergast

Source 4: Title of Book: _______________________________________________________
   Author of Book: ___________________________________________________________

Source 5: Title of Book: _______________________________________________________
   Author of Book: ___________________________________________________________
The Toppings
for example, Title of Webpage: Native Americans: Apache Tribe
Title of Website: Ducksters

Source 6: Title of webpage: ________________________________
Title of website: ________________________________

Source 7: Title of webpage: ________________________________
Title of website: ________________________________

Have any other sources that don’t fit in the boxes? Put them here!